

I believe that phone calls to my residence from companies I currently of have recently done business is intrusive and annoying. In so many families, there is already so little time together, and to have it violated so companies can employ telemarketers overseas, (sending our money over there) is in violation of privacy agreements the public enters with businesses we choose to do business with. Please tell these companies, that the American Citizens wish their reputation to do their advertising.